

It is the policy of Midalloy to provide the highest quality alloy welding, bar, and wire rod products and services that meet our customers' order requirements and exceed their expectations. Excellence in products and services is the cornerstone of everything we do.

It is the policy of Midalloy to carefully select suppliers who consistently meet industry quality standards and our stringent order specifications and who strive continuously to improve the quality of their products and services.

It is the policy of Midalloy to value our employees, to create for them the proper environment by promoting teamwork and by treating one another with dignity and respect, thus ensuring their dedication to these principles.